IN MEMORIAM

Laurence B. Holland
1921-1980

A very good teacher teaches by example, and Larry Holland—who was a very good teacher—offered an example of superior accomplishment in everything he did.

MILTON S. EISENHOWER SYMPOSIUM 1980

The Milton S. Eisenhower Symposium, established in 1967 to honor Dr. Eisenhower, President Emeritus of the University, consists of a series of lectures aimed toward the exploration of a theme approved by the student body.

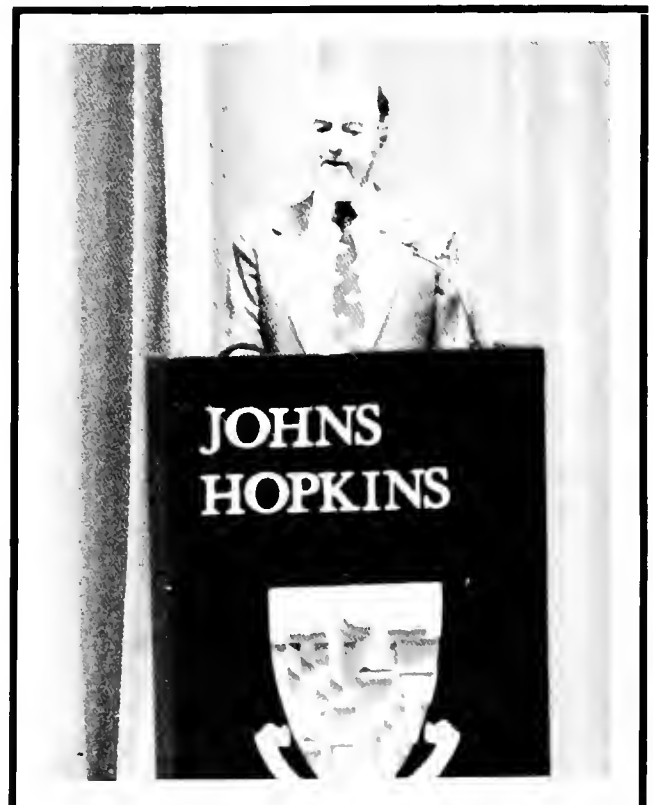

The 1980 Milton S. Eisenhower Symposium was entitled "The Crisis of the American Spirit: An Evaluation of Our Times." The explored topics represented different factors of American life vital for the survival of our culture. Included were the educational, psychological, medical, social, economic and political crises facing American society.

They need your help.

The Christian Hypocrites' Indignant-Executive Fund can provide that help. One man's case is typical. An Exxon executive, he was without hope until someone—someone like YOU—stepped in.

A year ago, this man didn't know where his next Low Tel was coming from. He was subjected to the brutalities of rising IRS men who claimed, sometimes as much as 30% of his adjusted income. And the dreaded windfall-profits tax threatened to absorb even more of his hard-earned capital. Antitrust proceedings robbed him of his sleep. Life, in short, was hell—a hell you and I can only begin to appreciate.

That was then. But then W. Clement Stone stepped in. A prominent Chicago banker, investor and director of foundations, and also a devoted Christian, "Clem" heeded Our Lord's words, "you are your brother's keeper." His donation of $327,000 helped elect more compassionate legislators and a President who is more sensitive to the plight of such men as our Exxon executive. And it helped him to breathe easier.

"Clem" tells us that he now receives bi-annual letters of appreciation from this indignant executive whose life he touched. In true Christian fashion, the beneficiary of "Clem's generosity" exhibits his grateful stewardship by providing intermittent financial tokens of his esteem.

You can help too, like Clement Stone. For only $25,000 a year, you can sponsor a needy executive like the one above. Your sponsorship (tax deductible) entitles you to receive a picture of your beneficiary, progress reports from his accountants, and admission to Republican National Committee fund-raising events. In short, you can know the good feeling of helping someone in need. And you can earn the appreciation of someone who may be able to help you someday.

Just clip and send the form below today. As the last general election proved, there are people who care about the lot of executives. Don't you want to stand up and be counted as one?

To the Editor:

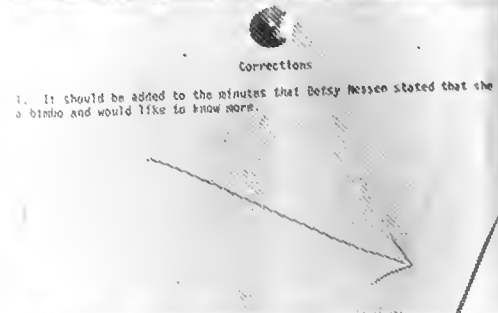

We were walking on campus today and one of us stepped on some gum. Shit! Colombo should ban all humans from campus. Then we got high. Thank God (sigh!) We can't deal with this anxiety.

Sincerely worse than you think,

"A major concern of the Chaplain's Office is to provide experiences that help humanize relationships, widen horizons and encourage a sense of responsibility."

— Chester Wickwire

August 1978 August 1978

HULLABALOO '81

This space appears to be empty. Actually, it contains an editor's statement from the Editor-in-Chief.

The editor's statement has long been a tradition with all yearbooks, and the fact that this year it says very little in no way reduces the value of this perennial prose, which is always fraught with frustration and all the other nice sentiments associated with the making of a yearbook, tempered with the usual thanks to the umpteen wonderful people without whom, etc. This year's is destined to be a classic in the history of the editor's statement. Savour its limited wisdom, and may the force be with you.

THE BARNSTORMERS

The theatrical club of the Johns Hopkins University is called "The Barnstormers," and their 1980-81 officers were Maggie Burri, Daphne Golding, Larry Park, Christopher Hampton, and Ron Peppe. Their productions this year included the Freshman One-Acts, "Bell, Book, and Candle," "The Cocktail Party," and "The Music Man."

Scenes from "The Music Man" are shown in these two pages.

COMMEMORATION

On February 23, 1981 the 105th anniversary of the founding of the Johns Hopkins University was commemorated at Shriver Hall. Frank Press, the president-elect of the National Academy of Sciences was the principal speaker, and was awarded an honorary degree. In addition, three retired faculty members received honorary degrees for their outstanding contributions to Johns Hopkins: Warfield M. Firor, Emeritus of Surgery, JHMI; Maurice H. Mandelbaum, Professor Emeritus of Philosophy; and Margaret Merrell, Professor Emerita of Biostatistics, JHSHPH. The Milton S. Eisenhower Medal for Distinguished Service was presented to Richard B. Kershner, retired assistant director of APL.

During Commemoration, students demonstrated in the rainy quad outside of Shriver Hall calling for the reinstatement of Marge Mareck, a former JHU employee whom many believe to have been unfairly fired from her job.

ROTC COMMISSIONING

On May 28, 1981 at Shriver Hall seventeen seniors were commissioned into the United States Army as second lieutenants, culminating their work in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Johns Hopkins.

Dr. Steven Muller and Lieutenant Colonel Karl E. May presented various awards in a short ceremony before the seniors took their oath of office (lower left hand picture, opposite page). An address was given by Coast Guard Rear Admiral John D. Costello. Reverend John P. Donohue gave the invocation and benediction.

The seniors commissioned that day were: Frank E. Altman, John E. Barnes, William T. Barto, Paula E. Boggs, Kenneth J. Bright, David A. DePastina, Michael J. McAvinue, Laura L. Monninger, Lynne T. Murphy, William J. Oberle, Thomas G. Pope, and Krista M. Werner. To be commissioned in the summer is Gregory K. Bowser, and in the fall, David A. Greene, John L. Koster, James R. Norris, and Melanie L. Parker.

COMMENCEMENT

The Johns Hopkins University Commencement Exercises were held May 29, 1981 on Gilman Quad.

Four Honorary Degrees were conferred during the ceremony: the Degree of Doctor of Humane Letters was presented by Provost Richard P. Longaker to opera singer Marian Anderson, philosopher Sir Isaiah Berlin, gerontologist Nathan W. Shock, and former UCLA chancellor Franklin D. Murphy. Dr. Murphy, presently Chairman of the Board of the Times Mirror Company, gave the graduation address.

The close of the 105th Academic Year of the University saw the graduation of Chi-Bin Chien, the youngest recipient, at age 15, of a Bachelor's Degree from Hopkins in its 105 year history, along with 537 members of the Class of 1981.

A total of 475 Bachelor of Arts degrees from the School of Arts and Sciences and the G.W.C. Whiting School of Engineering were given at the ceremony; in addition, 65 Bachelor of Engineering Science degrees were conferred.
